

Día de la Mujer Latina

Día de la Mujer Latina, Inc

Tel: 1-877-518-8889 diadelamujerlatina@gmail.com

www.diadelamujerlatina.org

ATTENTION PROMOTORES AND COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKERS

Beyond The Melting Pot: Promoting Community Resilience In The Face Of Trauma

Friday, March 25, 2011

1:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Houston Community College

3100 Main St., Houston, TX 77002

CEU: 4 Hours (In Spanish and English)

- Trauma Curriculum for Promotores and Community Health Workers
This closed session is designed for Promotores and Community Health Workers to provide mental health awareness about the impact of trauma on adults and children. Sessions will be conducted simultaneously in Spanish and English by facilitators.
Venus Ginés, M.A., M. Renee Valdez, M.D., Ph.D, Toi Blakley Harris, M.D.

- Depression Curriculum for Promotores and Community Health Workers
This closed session is designed for Promotores and Community Health Workers to provide mental health awareness about depressive disorders including post-partum depression. Sessions will be conducted simultaneously in Spanish and English by facilitators.
Venus Ginés, MA, Melissa Ochoa-Perez, M.D., Shetal Amin, M.D., Barbara Robles M.S. 3

Sponsors:

Día de la Mujer Latina, Inc.

Asian American Family Services

Texas Regional Psychiatry-Psychology Minority Mentor Network (TRPMMN)

Houston Community College

Houston Police Department, Crisis Intervention Team (CIT)

Registration: $30.00

Contact Venus Ginés, MA, venusgines@gmail.com