

Working together we can do it.

Trabajando juntos, sí se puede.

8 a.m. - 12 noon

July 12-14, 2011

Ivy Tech Community College | Ivy Hall Room 1106

Become a certified Promotor(a) de Salud for your community.*

Presentation:

Promotores de Salud:
Working together we can do it.

Instructor:

Venus Ginés, MA

Instructor, Cultural Competence, Health Promotions
and Health Literacy
Chronic Disease Prevention & Control Research Center
Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas

Learning Objectives:

Attendants will receive information that will allow them to discuss the role of Promotores according to the parameters set by the state of Indiana, identify three ways Promotores can deliver a culturally appropriate health message, and describe the Promotores de Salud model.

Location:

Ivy Tech Community College - 3101 S. Creasy Lane
Lafayette, IN

Registration: Training is free, but registration is necessary.

Register online at www.latinocoalition.net or email latinocenter_tippecanoe@live.com with the information below.

Name:

Phone:

Full address:

Email:

The Latino Center for Wellness & Education, Ivy Tech Community College, and the Hanna Community Center invite you to attend a training session related to health issues in our communities, including cervical and breast cancer, and how you can help.

Latino Center for Wellness & Education

www.latinocoalition.net

* Promotores de Salud is a Texas State Certified Training Program.